It Matters Not How Long We Live

Foreword

As we the seniors of '64" say farewell to our days at Ramseur High School and pass through these doors for the last time as students, we wish to express our gratitude to our parents, teachers, and friends who have guided us these past years. Now let us pause for a moment to remember those joyous hours, those valued friends, and those most beloved scenes of our school days. We hope that by looking through these pages we may be more vividly reminded of our pleasant memories. We do not want to merely list the events; we want to reveal them . . .

But How Well

In Memoriam

Miss Elma Burgess

Miss Elma Burgess who lost her life in an automobile accident on October 20, 1963 . . . This is an expression of our love for "Miss Pete," as she was affectionately called.

Her years of service to Ramseur School as first grade teacher, her interest in, and her active role in guiding students made her a keystone in the growth and development of this school.

Her memory and influence will long live in the lives of those whom she taught and those who knew and loved her.

If we work upon marble, it will perish.
If we carve upon bronze, time will efface it.
If we rear temples, they will crumble into dust.
But if we work upon immortal minds,
And imbue them with the right principles,
With reverence to God and love for their fellowmen,
We create a monument which will last and grow brighter
Throughout the endless ages of eternity.

Class History

As we the class of "'64" come to the end of our high school career, we look back over our twelve long years of hard work with priceless memories. As innocent and eager children, we started our hard struggle through school in 1952 and advanced slowly but surely through the primary and grammar grades. We recall the time we had to take our punishment by standing in the corners or writing "I must not talk in school." The biggest thrill of our elementary school years was our trip to Raleigh.

With our experiences and desires to rise, we entered high school. As our freshman year began, we found out that there was more to high school than ball games, banquets, and special privileges. We had to work with our nose "to the grindstone," but there were moments of fun and times for laughter.

As we returned the next fall for our annual war with textbooks, we felt wise and mature as knowing sophomores. This year, we were welcomed by our new Principal, Mr. Parker.

By our junior year, we had become familiar with everyone and all the rules and regulations of Ramseur High. This was the year to which everyone had been looking forward. Would you like to buy a magazine? You're right; we were working on our class project to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. The banquet was held at the Siler City Country Club on May 5, 1963. The theme was "Apple Blossom Time." Finally the time came to order our class rings, which will always be a binding symbol of unity. If you heard us saying, "I never want to see another daisy," you knew some tired and dusty students were working on the daisy chains. Thus our junior year was history.

Senior! It is hardly believable. The twelve years have been swift, but our goal is near at hand. During this busy year we found time to elect Bob York, President; William Wright, Vice President; Mary Kivett, Secretary; and Susan Sillmon, Treasurer.

We regret leaving our Alma Mater with its friendships, trials, moments of pleasure, hours of disappointments, loves--and we almost wish we were starting over. But the determination that has brought us successfully to the close of our high school career will surely carry us through life with its problems.

Our history would not be complete if we did not thank Miss Phyllis Oakley for her helpful guidance in leading us to our goal--graduation.

We would like to say thanks to our teachers who have faithfully guided us, and to our parents who have given us more than words can express. Last, to the students remaining at Ramseur High School, we give the advice to work hard and to enjoy your school life to the fullest. As we the Seniors of 1964 leave, we will remember our school forever and cherish our memory book containing 12 of the best years of our lives.

Class Prophecy

Power being vested to us as class prophets, we have heretofore taken into consideration the past 12 years in R. H. S. and have devised this prophecy in due respect to the paths that the below listed, in all probability, will take. If we go by this method we find:

Wayne Allen is the founder of the Chevrolet-powered tractors which have set recent track records at Boneville Flats.

Annette Allred is recently starring in the Desert Inn in Las Vegas, billed as the second Jayne Mansfield. James Hicks is also there, running a roulette wheel.

Richard and Russell Busick just organized the New York Mets basketball team, and the future looks bright.

Judy Carmac and Mary Julian own the new Liberty Drive-In with Pat York's Airfield on the top.

Ronnie Cranford's resort area on the sunny shores of Deep River is doing very well.

Gwen Cox is now the secretary to the President of the United States, Jimmy Busick.

John Dorsett is married, naturally, but only to 70 women instead of the 20 we predicted.

Gwyn Pell is founder of the Pell Tobacco Company, specializing in long rancid cigars.

Ann Hussey is currently starring with Dick Chamberlain in "Dr. Kildare."

Ronnie Hardin is the owner of Esso Standard Oil Company, his lifelong station.

David Grimes, the Mayor of Ramseur, has had the city limits extended to Asheboro, for some unknown reason.

Linda Kidd and Diana Spivey are housewives in Beverly Hills.

Wade Kivett, now President of General Motors, is making a fine bid for the presidency of Ford Motor Company.

Willa Dean Bryant is the French teacher at Franklinville.

Roger Hicks is a professional wrestler, his next bout being with Larry Hill.

Wayne Hubbard is currently teaching English at U. N. C.

Larry Hutchens is the new Billiards champion of the world winning over William Wright, who owns Mac's Pool Hall.

Betty Isley, married to Gregg Cox, has just had her 5th set of twins.

Ira Mac McGee is the owner of the GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS.

Mary Kivett is the first lady to enlist in the Women's National Guard.

Susan Sillmon is the only woman doctor in charge of entrance exams at Fort Bragg.

Donnie Hutchins is chief advisor of the Bill Rinehardt Foundation for misplaced French papers.

Jimmy Maness is the chief psychiatrist at San Quinton, or so he thinks.

Rebecca Richardson, who is now married, lives in Seagrove, and teaches there.

Diane Lindley is now columnist for the WALL STREET JOURNAL.

Robert York owns a 100,000 acre farm in the heart of Florida's Everglades Swamp.

Ellen Marley is now the sole woman to hold the championship of the Powder Puff Race at Darlington, S. C.

Mike Wright is the proud owner of "Spirits Inc." We don't know what it makes, but it smells good!

Class Song

Yes, it's a big wide world we live in
And I can't believe it's true
That these years of fun that we have known
Will soon be past and gone.

Although we leave the joys
That we have known so well,
Our memories so sweet
Our classmates dear.

Now out in the world we go
To take our first big step;
We want to thank you all
For your guidance and help.

Yes, it's a big wide world we live in
And as the time grows near,
We think of days at ole Ramseur High
And will always hold them dear.

Class Poem

For lo, these past twelve years
Toiling to meet our goal,
When, at last, graduation brings tears
For our high school story has been told.

Now, deep within each heart lies
Fond memories of every joy.
That strengthened friendship ties
Which no one can ever destroy.

Our feet must tread future's road
Whether it be distant or nigh;
We will boldly carry life's load,
For we were prepared at Ramseur High.

Although we would like to dwell,
Our high school days end.
And tearfully we say farewell
To you, our parents, teachers, and friends.

Ramseur Rams Play Host To Coats In Home Opener

Ramseur hopes to regain its footing in the Mid-Central Conference this week when they meet the Coats Yellow Jackets at Ramseur High Field.

This marks the first home game for the Rams in three years. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

Coach Harold Holmes of the Rams said he believed that Ramseur and Coats would be more evenly matched than last year. The Ram line averages 175 pounds and the Yellow Jacket line averages 168 pounds.

Ramseur has an overall 14-1 record in three games. They knocked off Denton 13-0, beat Chatham Central 13-13, and lost last week to highly-ranked Angier 27-0. Coats has played only two games, clobbering Greenwood 35-0 and losing a close 14-0 decision to Boone Trail.

"My boys are in good physical condition and are ready to go," Coach Talie Dupree of Coats said this week. "Ramseur has a real good ball team and we're not expecting any easy time of it over there."

In the Ramseur camp, Coach Holmes reported that quarterback Eric Allred had been ailing but was expected to see action tomorrow night. Several other Ramseur starters had bruised knees but overall was considered in fair shape for the Coats encounter.

The probable starting line up for both teams are as follows:
